Something's building in the world of Artifacts!

Head to your local comic shop this Wednesday and pick up Artifacts #31, the second issue featuring international artist Jung-Geun Yoon (Captain America, Age of Ultron). Get a fresh perspective on the Top Cow Universe through the eyes of young Raphael, Tom Judge's latest employee...a janitor.

The kid's duties are cut short, however, with a battle of the Artifacts raging right on Tom Judge's doorstep, and something very strange happening with the Darkness itself. Angelus, Darkness, Rapture - this book's got everything!

Grab a copy of the penultimate issue of Ron Marz's (Green Lantern, Witchblade) incredible run, leading directly into his explosive farewell to the series. Ron's time with the Artifacts is nearing its close, and he won't leave you hanging!

For those of you too impatient to wait for the drama, check out the preview below.
